

ALGAEUROPE

13-15 DEC 2016 | MADRID | SPAIN

AlgaeEurope 2016 entails the third EABA and EC Algae Contractors' Conference, and the tenth International Algae congress. The conference is organized by EABA, the European Commission and DLG Benelux, and takes place in Madrid, Spain.

2015 60 Poster presentations at AlgaeEurope 2015
220⁺ Delegates joined us for AlgaeEurope 2015

2016 160 Abstracts submitted, by 90 institutions from 34 countries
51 Speakers invited to share their expertise in 9 sessions

The nine AlgaeEurope 2016 session topics:

- Research and industrial applications worldwide: the global experience
- Science innovation potential in Europe
- Genetically improved and GMO algae for high value products and commodities
- Innovative processes for high value products
- Breakout to commercialization: 'Algae Cluster' and other 'Lighthouse' projects
- Value chains in commercialization: EU biorefinery and added-value products
- Biofuels, chemicals, wastewater treatment, and greenhouse gas reduction
- Novel foods and animal feed
- Algae cultivation: from laboratory to commercial plants and marketing in Europe

Visit our website for the complete program

The conference venue

Confirmed speakers:

- Xiaonian Ma (Peking University)
- Maria Barbosa (Wageningen University)
- Jiří Masojídek (ALGATECH)
- Philipp Schwerna (Institute of Bioprocess Engineering)
- Emilio Molina-Grima (University of Almería)
- Andrew Spicer (Algenuity)
- Saul Purton, (University College London)
- Maria Huete-Ortega (University of Sheffield)
- Anthony Massé (GEPEA, University of Nantes)
- Wolfgang Frey (Karlsruhe Institute of Technology)
- Andrea del Pilar Sanchez-Camargo (Institute of Food Science Research (CIAL, CSIC-UAM))
- Šárka Moudříková (Charles University)
- Fabrizio Bezzo (University of Padova)
- Zouhayr Arbib (FCC Aqualia)
- Hilke Heinke (Volkswagen)
- Hans Reith (Wageningen University)
- Leen Bastiaens (VITO)
- Jeremy Pruvost (University of Nantes)
- Erwan Le Gélébart (BioTechMarine)
- Natascia Biondi (University of Florence)
- Diana Fonseca (University of Florence)
- Ana Paula Batista (University of Lisbon)
- Lore Gheysen (KU Leuven)
- Liliana Rodolfi (University of Florence)
- Lolke Sijtsma (Wageningen Food & Biobased Research)
- Philip Sellars (University of Warwick)
- Tomas Morosinotto (Università di Padova)
- Steve Skill (Swansea University)
- Ulrike Neumann (Institute of Clinical Nutrition, University of Hohenheim)
- Erika Greipel (Albitech Biotechnological Ltd.)
- Fred Beisson (CEA-CNRS-Aix Marseille University)
- Stephanie Grahl (Georg-August-University Goettingen)
- William van der Riet (Tomalgae cvba)
- Pi Nyvall Collén (Olmix Group)
- Ladislav Nedbal (Forschungszentrum Jülich)
- Giacomo Sampietro (Fotosintetica & Microbiologica Srl)
- Marcella Langer (Global Biomass Exchange)
- Guido Reinhardt (IFEU Heidelberg)
- René Wijffels (WUR)
- Gabriel Acien (University of Almeria)
- Herminia Rodriguez (University of Seville)
- Federico G. Witt (AlgaEnergy S.A.)
- Cristina Gonzalez-Fernandez (IMDEA)
- Rui Gomes (CMP-ALGAFARM)

Key-note speeches

“Macroalgae, opportunities for animal health and global food security, the swine industry as an example”

Stefan Kraan (Ocean Harvest)

“EU Perspectives for Algae research beyond 2020”

Szilvia Bozsoki (European Commission, Directorate-General for Energy)

“The Solar Microalgae Industry: Then, Now, and Coming”

John Benemann (MicroBio Engineering)

Trade show participants

SCHOTT
glass made of ideas

More information

AlgaEurope 2016 is organized by EABA, the EC and DLG Benelux. Visit www.algaeurope.org for more info, or mail to s.kroeze@dlg.org

Benelux

